Johnson City Schools McKinney-Vento Dispute Resolution Procedures

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act guarantees rights and services for homeless children and youth to remove educational barriers. The law requires local education agencies (LEAs) to follow a dispute resolution process when parents, guardians, or unaccompanied youth and schools disagree on the eligibility, enrollment, or educational placement of homeless children and youth. The dispute resolution process is intended to represent each party’s views for objective consideration so that disagreements can be brought to closure expeditiously. The Johnson City Schools follows a dispute resolution process developed by the Tennessee Department of Education as required by the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act.

Policy Procedures:

Prompt resolution of disputes regarding the educational placement of homeless children and youth is critical. When a dispute arises over eligibility, school selection, or enrollment, the child or unaccompanied youth shall be immediately admitted to the school in which enrollment is sought, pending resolution of the dispute. When a dispute occurs regarding eligibility, enrollment, or school selection of a homeless child or youth, the parent or unaccompanied youth has the right to appeal using the following process.

Initiation of Dispute Resolution:

The parent or unaccompanied youth shall be informed of their right to appeal the decision made by the Johnson City Schools. Johnson City School staff will provide the following information:

- written contact information for the district’s homeless liaison and state coordinator with a brief description of each of their roles;
- written notice of the right to enroll immediately in the school of choice pending resolution of the dispute;
- a simple, written form that parents, guardians, or unaccompanied youth can complete and turn in to the school or the homeless liaison to initiate the dispute process;
- a copy of the completed form for the parent, guardian, or youth for their records at the time it is submitted;
- written, step-by-step instructions on how to object to or appeal (at all four levels described below) the district’s decision regarding eligibility, enrollment, or educational placement.
Overview of Dispute Resolution

Level 1-Appeal to the School or the Johnson City Schools’ Homeless Liaison:

If a parent or unaccompanied youth wishes to appeal an LEA’s decision related to eligibility, enrollment, or school selection, the appeal is submitted to the LEA’s homeless liaison or the homeless contact at the school where the dispute is taking place.

Level 2-Appeal to the Johnson City Schools’ Superintendent:

If the dispute is unresolved, the parent or unaccompanied youth may appeal the Level 1 decision to the Johnson City Schools’ Superintendent or designee.

Level 3-Appeal to the State Coordinator:

If the dispute continues to be unresolved, the parent or unaccompanied youth may appeal the Level 2 decision to the McKinney-Vento state coordinator at the department.

Level 4-Appeal to the State Assistant Commissioner of the Division of Federal Programs and Oversight (FPO):

If the parent, unaccompanied youth, or district wishes to appeal the Level 3 decision rendered by the McKinney-Vento state coordinator, an appeal may be submitted to the assistant commissioner of the division of federal programs and oversight (FPO).

Note: At each level, Johnson City Schools must provide a written explanation of the decision regarding eligibility, enrollment, or educational placement to the parent or the unaccompanied youth about the reason for its decision with the following information:

- a description of the action proposed or refused by the district or department;
- an explanation of why the action is proposed or refused;
- a description of any other options the school rejected;
- a description of any factors relevant to the school’s decision and information related to the eligibility or best interest determination including the facts, witnesses, and evidence relied upon and their sources;
- a description of the right to appeal, including the dispute resolution process, and appropriate timelines to ensure any relevant deadlines are not missed; and
- contact information for the local district homeless liaison and state coordinator, including a brief description of their roles.

   a. Request a dispute resolution form from the school or the Johnson City Schools.
   b. Complete the dispute resolution.
   c. Submit the completed dispute resolution form to the Johnson City Schools' homeless liaison within five business (5) days of receiving the district's decision related to eligibility, enrollment, or school selection or submit the request to the school where the dispute is taking place (school staff shall immediately forward the request to the homeless liaison).
   d. If the district's homeless liaison is unavailable, the parent's or unaccompanied youth's request to initiate the dispute resolution process may be provided to a school or district's designee.

1. The Johnson City Schools, parents, or unaccompanied youth will forward a written request to have their case reviewed when there is a conflict with the decision rendered by the McKinney-Vento state coordinator within five (5) business days of receipt of a decision rendered at Level 3 to the assistant commissioner of FPO.

2. The assistant commissioner of FPO shall then forward a request to the McKinney-Vento state coordinator to obtain all written documentation and related paperwork for review.

A decision will be made by the state coordinator within seven (7) business days of the receipt of the dispute and will be forwarded in writing to the both Superintendents and homeless liaisons, and the parent(s) of the homeless child or youth.
